

This Yakima Valley grown variety is a lesser known white, originally grown in Burgundy. Its bright citrus fruit and clean, crisp flavors are perfect for a hot summer day and are a perfect match for oysters on the half shell or steamed clams.

This Yakima Valley grown variety is a lesser known white, originally grown in Burgundy. Its bright citrus fruit and clean, crisp flavors are perfect for a hot summer day and are a perfect match for oysters on the half shell or steamed clams.