

Another, not run of the mill, grape from Jed Steele. This northern Italian grape Barbera, grown in Lake County is an all time foodie favorite. Great with many tomato based dishes or salumi selections. The lively fruit character, bright acidity and spice balance well with the soft, sensuous tannins for a wine that is sure to please.